SPEAK OUT

10.30am Apr 10

A shy 14-year-old with a stutter, Colin finds his voice and confidence through theatre with the support of his inspiring drama teacher. Taking on the lead role in Cyrano de Bergerac, he discovers the transformative power of self-belief, reminding us all of our potential with a little courage and panache.

ALL STIRRED UP!

10.30am Apr 11 - 11am Apr 13

On the Quebec-U.S. border, a determined customs officer teams up with a struggling French chef to help her daughter, who's being bullied, compete in a Mini Chefs contest. As they work together, they navigate local tensions, forging unexpected bonds and discovering the power of family, food, and friendship.

MY BROTHER'S BAND

5.30pm Apr 10 - 4pm Apr 12

Two estranged brothers, one a famous orchestra conductor and the other a trombone-playing cafeteria worker, are reunited through their shared love of music. As they navigate their differences, the conductor helps his brother tap into his potential, leading to a heartwarming journey of self-discovery and connection.

THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO

4pm Apr 13

In 1815 Marseille, Edmond Dantès, a young sailor, is betrayed and wrongfully imprisoned. After years of solitude, he discovers a hidden treasure and plots revenge against those who wronged him. Led by Pierre Niney, this thrilling adaptation of The Count of Monte Cristo has become a massive hit in France, offering a captivating cinematic experience.

BEFORE WHAT COMES AFTER

1.30pm Apr 12

This poignant tragicomedy explores life, mortality, and the dignity of dying through the friendship between philosopher Fabrice Toussaint and palliative care doctor Augustin Masset, delving into deep conversations about death and the art of listening with compassion and curiosity.

MISS VIOLET

12.45pm Apr 10 - 5.30pm Apr 11

In 1889 rural France, a teacher is tasked with introducing secular education to a resistant village. Facing hostility and personal secrets, she must navigate villagers' mistrust while exploring the transformative power of education and self-discovery.

THE STORY OF SOULEYMANE

3pm Apr 10 - 1.30pm Apr 13

A young delivery worker in Paris races against the clock while preparing for a life-changing residency interview. Working illegally and awaiting his asylum decision, he faces mounting anxiety and pressure.

JULIETTE IN SPRING

1pm Apr 11 - 11am Apr 12

A 35-year-old illustrator returns to her rural hometown to reconnect with her family, only to find herself confronting buried memories and family secrets. Amid her sister's affair, her grandmother's declining health, and her parents' feuding, she navigates the complexities of family life, rediscovering her own identity.

RIVIERA REVENGE

3pm Apr 11 - 6.30pm Apr 12

Retired General François discovers his wife's decades-old affair and embarks on a wild quest along the French Riviera to track down her former lover, risking his marriage in the process. Filled with stunning scenery, sharp wit, and emotional depth, this comedy shows it's never too late for love, laughter, or revenge.
